

Judy Bell
Administrator
Human Resources

Judy Bell serves as the Administrator of Human Resources for the Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

Bell has 32 years experience in Human Resources and taught Employment Law and Management Practices for the HR Certification Institute at the University of Memphis. Ms. Bell's business background includes serving as Senior Vice President over the areas of Risk Management, Regulatory Compliance, Human Resources, Training, and Asset Recovery as well as serving as a Business Adviser, writer, speaker, and Executive Coach. Ms. Bell has written and spoken nationally on the topics of Employee Engagement, Ethics, and Emotional Intelligence (EQ). Bell is a certified Behavioral Analyst and has held the PHR designation since 1995.

Ms. Bell is a native Memphian and has two children and two grandchildren.