

SQUIRREL HUNTING CHECKLIST

- Hunting license and regulations booklet
- Firearm (.22 rifle or shotgun)
- Ammunition (hollowpoints recommended for .22 rimfire; shotguns, #4, #5, or #6 shot)
- Camouflage clothing (not required, but usually improves your stalking capability)
- Cap or hat
- Light gloves or camo mesh gloves
- Boots or sturdy shoes (camo or dark colors recommended)
- Game vest (to hold squirrels, ammunition, lunch, etc.)
- Canteen or water bottle (especially during early season when it's hot)
- Insect repellent (mosquitoes and ticks can be abundant during the early season)
- Head net (if insects are really thick—some people like the additional concealment, too)
- Toilet paper
- Small knife
- Squirrel calls
- Binoculars
- Cooler (holds lunch and cold drinks on your way into the woods and holds squirrels on your way home)
- Maps and compass or GPS
- Camera
- Family member or good friend – hunting is a great social activity!
- Kids – squirrel hunting is great tag along fun for kids too young to hunt. Use the time to teach them how to stalk, spot game, and read sign in the woods. You'll be creating life-long memories and developing a future hunting buddy!
